

ESL Newsletter

For Elementary ESL Teachers

February 2021

Photo credit: pngkey

HAPPY TEACHER APPRECIATION WEEK!

"The theme for the 27th Teacher Appreciation Week, is:
Thank you for shaping the future of Quebec! Indeed, thank you for your commitment to teaching students even under the most dire circumstances!"

NEW from the MEQ

Apprentissages à prioriser pour l'année scolaire 2020-2021 en contexte pandémique: primaire, secondaire

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

- * Explore NFB's free collection of short and long films, detailing a rich history of Black communities in Canada.
- * Students can use this Biography Graphic Organizer to prepare a presentation of a notable Black pioneer they would like to learn more about. Then the class can host a Living Museum.
- * Browse through these 33 Black History Month Activities for February and Beyond

Photo credit:
Craving Yellow at clipartkey

HÉLÈNE's Book Recommendations

From Valentine's Day to Black History to Click here to view Hélène's February Book Recommendations.

VALENTINE'S DAY - Letters with Love

A letter-writing project that connects students to seniors in their community!

Here's a way for students to give to the community and practice their English writing skills. Click here to learn more and get involved.

Partners:

Funded by the Government of Canada

Financé par le gouvernement
du Canada

Canada

A NEW ESL WEBSITE!

Distance Teaching ESL: Activities - Projects - LESs for English as a Second Language Teachers

Find it and more like it on the Elementary ESL Community with the new tag ESL_Quebec on the Home page.

UPCOMING MEQ WORKSHOPS

Feb. 11: Revenir à l'essentiel : les besoins de vos élèves (primaire et secondaire)
Feb. 16: Constellations (QRC) : Creation et utilisation de réseaux littéraires dans les classes d'anglais au primaire. (page 9)
For information and to register, click here.

RÉCIT News from your RÉCIT ESL team:

Dianne Elizabeth, Martin, Nadia & Sandra

Make a Lunch Date with a member of the ESL RÉCIT. Every Tuesday, you can meet one of the members of ESL RÉCIT to ask questions about technology, and to connect with other ESL specialists. Click on CAMPUS RÉCIT to get the link, and to access the ESL RÉCIT webinar calendar.

Contact us

Elizabeth Alloul
ealloul@learnquebec.ca

Carolyn Buteau
carolyn.buteau@learnquebec.ca

*Pedagogical Consultants
ESL Special Project, LEARN*

